DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This building is semi-detached located on North Alley, it is two stories high and two bays wide. The facade is Flemish bond brick. The roof is a low pitched gable and it has a simple wood cornice. There are two chimneys, with each having a full arch above the opening.

The main entrance is a door on the left with a glass transom and a flat arched lintel. The main floor has a storefront which is large and is similar to a picture window. It has a simple cornice above this window. There are four marble stairs and a marble stoop.

The windows on the second floor are six-over-six, with a flat arch lintel, the window sills are wood. Above these windows are two flat indented panels for decoration. The third floor garret window in the center of the building is six-over-six.

On the side of the building that runs along North Alley, there is a wood and brick addition that is in back of this building. There is a wood porch and there are five windows which are six-over-six; also a side door and then four more windows which are six-over-six

This building is similar in width and length to the other buildings on this block.
